Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the cost of registration for the AISA Conference? (Click link to registration form)
   • Elders / Retired = $25 both days, $12 one day
   • Regular = $150 both days, $80 one day
   • Graduate Students = $50 both days, $30 one day
   • Undergraduate Students = No charge

2. Are there any registration discounts available?
   • AISA conference does not offer any discounts on registration.

3. Does American Indian Studies validate parking?
   • No, conference goers are responsible for their own parking.

4. What is the refund policy?
   • The AISA Conference handles every situation on a case-by-case basis.

5. What hotels are nearby?
   • Please click the Hotels link for information on hotels close the Arizona State University

6. Can I earn college credit by attending the AISA conference?
   • No, since it is a two-day conference, undergraduates and graduates do not receive ASU credit

Presenters:

7. When will I be notified if my proposal to present is accepted?
   • Presenters will be notified by committee member, Michael Yellowbird via email.

8. How do I confirm my participation in the conference?
   • When your proposal is accepted, please reply to Michael Yellowbird as soon as possible that you accept the invitation to present.

9. Do presenters have to pay conference registration fees?
   • Yes, there are no discounts for the AISA Conference.
10. I can’t make the date/time I was assigned for my presentation. Can I change it?
   • Changes are difficult to make because of the difficulty in reserving rooms and in making formal changes on the agenda that is distributed.
   • Contact Michael Yellowbird at michael.yellowbird@ndsu.edu regarding answers to your questions.

11. What audio-visual equipment is provided?
   • PC Laptops will provided in every room with access to internet. Your presentations should be on USB flash drives to upload onto laptops.
   • Please note iPads do not work well in the building, and should not be used for presenting.
   • If you will be using a MAC, there are a limited number of adapters that can be checked out from the Information desk.
   • If you have questions please contact Aaron Woods at awoods@asu.edu.

12. What are the different session formats?
   • The AISA conference formats may include:
     ▪ Round table sessions
     ▪ Plenary Sessions
     ▪ Panels

Volunteers:

13. Do volunteers receive a discount?
   • There are no volunteer discounts.

14. How do I volunteer?
   • Contact Aaron Woods of American Indian Studies at awoods@asu.edu

15. Registration Volunteer Roles and Responsibilities:
   • Registration volunteers are responsible for welcoming attendees and distributing registration materials. Attendees will ask questions on a variety of topics, so familiarize yourself with the conference schedules, room locations, etc.

16. Follow us on Twitter and Facebook!
   • Encourage participation/interaction with our Social Media accounts
     o Facebook: ASU American Indian Studies
     o Twitter: @AI_Studies_ASU

If you have any other questions/concerns please contact Aaron Woods at awoods@asu.edu. Thank you!